LCD Clock on water energy

Description
1. Cover
2. Screen
3. Mode key (MODE)
4. Setup key (SET)
5. Electrode

Date and hour setting
- Press the SET key 4 times, the display shows the month.
- To set the month, press the MODE key y then the SET button.
- The display shows the day's digit. Press MODE button to set the day's digit, then press the SET button.
- The screen shows the hour's digit. In the 12-hour display, the designation "A" refers to AM and "P" to PM. The designation "H" refers to the 24-hour display. (Sometimes you have to press the MODE key to scroll through the 12 or 24 hour display mode to reach the desired hour mode).
- Press the MODE key to set the hour, then press the SET key.
- The number of minutes will appear on the screen. Press MODE button to set the number of minutes, then press the SET button.
- Press the MODE key once. The double point symbol begins to flash to indicate the hour setting is complete.

Alarm and hour alarm setting
- To enter the alarm setting mode, press the SET key. The display shows "AL". The alarm hour starts flashing.
- To turn the alarm and hour alarm on and off, press the MODE key until you reach the desired setting. The "" symbol indicates that the daily alarm has been activated; The "" symbol indicates that the hour alarm is activated.
- Press the SET button. To set the hour, press the MODE key. In the 12-hour display, "A" refers to AM and "P" to PM. In the 24-hour display mode, the display shows "H" on the screen).
- Press the SET button. The display shows the number of minutes. Press MODE button to set the number of minutes.
- To exit the setup mode, press the SET button.
- Press any key to turn off the alarm when the alarm expires. If you do not press any key, the alarm goes off for 30 seconds.

Setting or changing the 12 or 24 hour display mode
- Press SET key 6 times.
- Press MODE button to choose between 12 or 24 hours playback. In the 12-hour display, "A" refers to AM and "P" to PM. The designation "H" refers to the 24-hour display. (Sometimes, scroll through the 12 or 24 hour display mode to reach the desired hour mode).
- Select the correct number of the hour by pressing the MODE key until the desired 12 or 24 hour display mode appears on the screen; then press the SET button.
- Press the MODE key until you reach the desired number of minutes. Then press the SET button.
- Press the MODE key once. The double point symbol begins to flash to indicate the hour setting is complete.

Alarm and calendar display
- Press the MODE key to display the alarm hour.
- Press MODE twice to display the calendar.
- After 4 seconds, the clock returns to the current time.

Zero setting of seconds
- Press MODE button 3 times to display the second time.
- To reset the seconds, press the SET key.
- Press MODE button to exit setting mode.

- Remove the lid and fill the reservoir with water to turn the clock on.
- After a few seconds the clock will start working.
- The amount of water in the container provides enough power for about two weeks.

Maintenance
- As soon as the on-screen instructions appear blurry, refresh the water.
- During this process, the hourly notes are kept for 2 minutes.
- The amount of water in the container provides enough power for about two weeks.

Operation
Refresh the water energy system